Vienna, April 25.

IT has been resolved in a late Council of War, to recruit the Imperial Regiments of Horse; the Foot Regiments are complete. It is discoursed, that Prince Eugene will probably make a Tour e're long into Italy, to visit the Condition of the fortified Towns. The Ambassador of Malta having newly solicited Succours against the Turks, whose Preparations of War seem to threaten that Island, the Emperor has assured them of his Aid, and granted Leave to transport as much Corn from Sicily as the Grand Master shall have Occasion for.

Copenhagen, May 2. The King and the Queen are on the Point of setting out for Jutland, and from thence their Majesties purpose to go to Holstein. M. Reichwein, his Danish Majesty's late Envoy at Vienna, is newly arrived from thence; another Person will soon be appointed to succeed him.

Hambourg, May 3. The last Letters from Moscow say, that Dispatches of Importance were lately brought thither by a Courier from Prussia, who was immediately sent back with other Letters; and that the Czar will shortly send his private Secretary to Berlin to negotiate and finish the present Matters in Treaty between the two Courts. Advices from Berlin say, the King of Prussia is frequently reviewing his Troops, and that all the General Officers have received Orders to be in a readiness to March as soon as the Regiments are reviewed. The Foundation for the new House that is to be built here for the Residence of the Emperor's Ministers, was laid the last Week; 'tis reckoned the Expence of this Building will amount to 100000 Lubbeck Marks. It is believed that the Count de Metch the present Imperial Minister, will voluntarily quit the House of the late Baron Gortz, because of some Inconveniences which that Minister finds there. Letters from Riga give an Account, that the Danish Minister M. Westphalia has been obliged by bad Weather to put in at that Port, and that he is now determined to proceed to Petersbourg by Land.
